

1st Curie Day

January 10, 2025

Location: Maria Skłodowska-Curie National Research Institute of Oncology, ul. W.K. Roentgena 5, 02-781 Warsaw

Agenda

10:30 – 10:40 Opening of the 1st Curie Day - welcome by Prof. Beata Jagielska, Director of the Maria Skłodowska-Curie National Research Institute of Oncology (NIO-PIB, MSCI) with the introduction of directors of two Branches:

MSCI, Gliwice:	Prof. Sławomir Blamek, General Director
	Prof. Tomasz Rutkowski, Scientific Director
MSCI, Kraków:	Prof. Janusz Ryś, General Director
	Prof. Tomasz Banaś, Scientific Director

10:40 – 10:50 Overview of the structure, activities of MSCI - Prof. Iwona Ługowska, Plenipotentiary Director for International Affairs, Warsaw

10:50 – 11:00 Presentation of Institut Curie, Paris - Prof. Thierry Philip - Former president of the executive committee, Institut Curie

11:00 – 12:00 - Curie 4 Curie (C4C) Program – moderated by Prof. Iwona Ługowska and Prof. Thierry Philip

11:00 – 11:10 Introduction by Prof. Iwona Ługowska.

11:10 – 11:50 Presentations of research projects (10 minutes each):

1. „STEREO-LUNG – Analysis of prolonged progression free survival after ablative treatment of oligoprogressive disease for patients under immunotherapy in 1st line of a metastatic NSCLC, pooled retrospective cohorts from Institut Curie (Paris) & Maria Skłodowska-Curie Institute”, Overview and preliminary results – prof. Maciej Krzakowski.
2. „Clinical, molecular and anatomopathological characterization of patients with Carcinoma of Unknown Primary (CUP) using the experience of the French National CUP Molecular Tumor Board (Curie CUP Cooperation, 3C project”, Overview and preliminary results – dr Aleksandra Kapała.
3. „Early phase clinical trials as viable therapeutic option for cancer patients”, Overview and preliminary results – prof. Iwona Ługowska.
4. „The MTARC enzymes as a potential breast cancer subtypes biomarkers, towards the clarification of MTARC1/2 protein role in breast cancer tumorigenesis and metabolism”, Overview and preliminary results – prof. Michał Mikula

11:50-12:00 Summary - Prof. Thierry Philip

12:00 – 12:15 - Break

12:15 – 14:00 - Presentation of Priority Research Areas and Opportunities for Collaboration – moderated by Prof. Iwona Ługowska

12:15 – 12:30 “Paris” by Prof. Thierry Philip

12:30 – 12:45 “Warsaw” by Dr. Michał Mikuła

12:45 – 13:00 “Gliwice” by Prof. Tomasz Rutkowski

13:00 – 13:15 “Kraków” by Dr. Tomasz Banaś

13:15 – 13:45 Discussion on Collaborative Opportunities

13:45 – 14:00 Closing remarks by Prof. Thierry Philip and Prof. Beata Jagielska

14:00 – 15:00 Lunch and Networking